We are currently seeking an Onsite Safety Professional for our LAX runway project in Los Angeles. The Onsite Safety Professional must meet the minimum requirements as listed below.

Minimum Requirements of the position:

Minimum of 5 years of Safety experience in a construction industry as a safety professional or supervisor with safety responsibility.
Construction Health and Safety Technician (CHST) Certification or Equivalent Preferred OSHA 30 hour Construction First aid CPR training required, trainer preferred.
Ability to demonstrate working knowledge of excavations, confined spaces, fall protection, hazard communication, rigging operations, and the ability to conduct awareness level training for each discipline.
Have working knowledge of Causal Analysis methods.
Have solid interpersonal skills, must be able to work well with the construction project site team, owners and construction management firms.
Moderate Proficiency in Microsoft Excel, Power Point, and Word.
Efficient recordkeeping and submittals of required project safety documentation.

Responsibilities:
Provide jobsite orientation and safety training.
Enforce safety standard according to IIPP.
Ensure subcontractor compliance with jobsite safety regulations and requirements.
Conduct incident investigations and provide reports. Follow up to make sure corrective action has been taken.
Support Weekly Tool box meetings
Coordinate Emergency Response and ensure employees receive medical treatment.
Maintain jobsite postings
Conduct site audits
Other duties as assigned

Contact:

Christopher Morgan, CHST
Safety Director
Griffith Company

3050 E. Birch Street
Brea, CA 92821
P: 714-984-5500

cmorgan@griffithcompany.net
www.GriffithCompany.net