AFRICANA STUDIES: Historical & Political Development Concentration
Bachelor of Arts (First-Time Freshman 4-year Roadmap)

The purpose of the degree roadmap is to serve as a guide for planning one’s academic coursework required to complete a specific major semester by semester. The roadmap is subject to change and is NOT to be considered a replacement for advisement with an academic advisor. Students who choose majors that require a minor should take this into consideration when customizing their own academic plan. See reverse side for additional information.

Career Options
The Department of Africana Studies provides undergraduate training for students interested in developing careers in teaching, academic research, international relations and community development. Often graduate work is required in certain job categories. However, persons with an Africana Studies background are employed in a wide range of careers such as counseling, social work, international consultant, foreign service, public relations, educational administration, media, management, urban planning, librarianship, law, and law enforcement.

NOTE: This is a single field major. No minor is required. See Catalog 2009 - 2011.

Occasionally, courses listed on the roadmaps may be offered in only specific semesters or on an as needed basis. Students are strongly urged to refer to the University Catalog, Class Schedule, or consult with an academic advisor each semester to ensure that they are progressing toward graduation in as timely a manner as possible.
